Nadia Paul

I am very passionate about helping people affected by leprosy and joined TLM in 2019- to date. I am a school teacher by profession and an ordained minister of the gospel. Both my husband and I and our family served in our church in SA for 33 years before coming to NZ in 2019 where we serve in our NZ branch.

In March 2020 (pre covid) I had the absolute honour and blessing to be able to visit India to see the work of the Leprosy Mission firsthand. I went on a story-gathering trip and visited a few of our leprosy mission hospitals while in India. The trip was life-changing and provided great context to the work that we do. I was able to meet (and pray) with so many sufferers of leprosy.

I am delighted to share with your Mission group today! For more information on the leprosy mission you can visit www.leprosymission.org.nz.

The survey is available in the following languages; Maori, Cebuano, Chinese, Fijian, Korean, Spanish, Tagalog, Tamil & Tongan. If you require a copy in another language please let the office know.
