Caleb McGregor

I am a 43-year-old husband and father of three bilingual kids. I have lived in the USA, England, France, and Mongolia, and have traveled to many other countries. I have been involved in various denominations.

When I was 12 years old, God told me He would bring me back to my country, when I was 24, I returned to NZ. I have been teaching for 15+ years, and for the last ten years, I have taught students with special learning needs.

My wife is French, and we decided to settle in Whanganui to start a family. We are both focused on missions and have a passion for reaching people. We are both saved and lost, from different nations. Over the years, I have been a part of many mission trips and have used radical evangelism techniques to engage people in conversations about the reality of sin, death, and the afterlife.

Remember Me

“Remember Me
I’m the great I Am
Remember Me
I’m the Lord who can.

Remember Me
Each, and every day
Remember Me
I’m the only way.

Remember Me
When you’re in strife
Remember Me
For I gave My life.

Remember Me
I’m your best friend
Remember Me
My love never ends.

Remember Me
Just say My name
The name of Jesus
And I’m coming again.

Remember Me”
